

Rusty Palmer, Executive Vice President, Four Points Technology has been providing information technology products and their associated services to the federal sector for over 25 years. He currently is co-owner of this Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small business that has seen its revenue grow over the past 5 years from $2.5 Million to $87M. In 2007, Four Points was recognized by Entrepreneur Magazine as the third fastest growing technology small business in America and the 14th fastest growing small business in America.

Peter Bianchetta, Vice President of Sales, Video & Telecommunications, Inc. (VTI) is here today representing Malachi Jones, CEO& President. Mr. Jones who started VTI in 1982 is a retired Colonel. He is a 70% disabled veteran, served in combat positions in Vietnam and in Cambodia and was awarded the Legion of Merit. Pete has been selling to USDA since 1986. In 2006 VTI received the USDA SDVOB Business of the year Award for outstanding service.

Patricia Williams, President and CEO, Omega Technologies, Inc, Army Major (Ret) established her woman-owned SDVOSB in 1991. Omega provides the full spectrum of information technology and telecommunications service. Omega is a graduate of the 8(a) program holds a top secret clearance. Omega has extensive domestic and international experience. Clients include: Office of the Secretary of the Army, U.S. Navy, Homeland Security, Treasury and many others.